

Convention: June 24-28, 2021 | Schedule at a Glance

Updated 6.17.2021

Wednesday, June 23

---

- 6-8 p.m. Resolutions Committee Meeting
This meeting is an opportunity for delegates to explain their resolution (received by June 17, via the Resolution Submission form) to the committee and to make sure their resolution—or amendment to a resolution—meets the guidelines and criteria set forth in section E of the Standing Rules of the Convention). The proposer must be able to clearly state the LWVWA position or priority upon which their resolution is based. The committee can help with wording and editing for clarity, but will report out affirmatively only those resolutions that meet the stated criteria.

Thursday, June 24

---

- 1-2 p.m. Workshop: Looking for some civics education activities to help adults better understand how their government works?
Please join the LWVWA Civics Education Committee to learn more about the civics education activities for adults created by our local Leagues. Based on our recent survey of local Leagues, we discovered 160 different civics education activities for adults. This inventory provides a valuable resource for all Leagues. We want to hear about your civics education work, too! Plan to attend this interactive session.
- 2:30-3:30 p.m. Workshop: Deliberative Democracy and Citizens' Initiative Review
Learn about "policy juries" as ways to bring together diverse, everyday citizens to deliberate on tough policy issues. We will talk specifically about one application, the Citizens' Initiative Review (CIR), which the LWVWA is working to bring to Washington state, and explore how this democratic format might work in your community.
- 4-5 p.m. Welcome to the Convention
Convocation: Lunell Haught, LWVWA President
Opening Speaker: Dr. Margo Hill
Description to come.
- 5:30-7:30 p.m. Plenary Session I
Delegates will receive a Zoom link via email the morning of; all others may watch the livestream online.
- Presiding, Lunell Haught, LWVWA President
Business documents for this session can be found in the Convention Workbook: Agenda, Recommended Program of Work, Not-Recommended Program Items, Nominating Committee Report, Bylaws Committee Report, Treasurer's Report, Budget Report

7:30-8:30 p.m.

Caucuses

- Washington State Local and Regional News Study
Learn why members of the Responsible Journalism Affinity Group believe the League should conduct a study of local and regional news in Washington state. Learn more about how the decline of local and regional journalism impacts voter participation, partisanship, the finances of municipalities, community involvement, public health, and other civic concerns.
  - TBD

Friday, June 25

---

9:30-10:30 a.m.

Workshop: League Advocacy

Learn how the League translates positions into action at the state legislature and how you can help.

---

11 a.m.-12 p.m.

Workshop: Design Engaging Program Meetings—Tips from Cultivating Civic Conversations

Over a hundred people from inside and outside the League have joined the Cultivating Civic Conversations (CCC) groups since June 2020. These multimonth learning communities are designed to highlight how much each of us can become more engaged in civics and justice work, one person at a time. The workshop will present an overview of how the sessions are designed. To show how these ideas get put into action, the workshop will include a mini-CCC session using content from the LWVWA's new elementary civics book's chapter "Civics and the Natural World."

---

12:30-1:30 p.m.

Lunch Speaker

Jerry L. Price, NBCT Program Supervisor Social Studies Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI)

Description to come.

---

2:30-3:30 p.m.

Caucus: Washington's Public Hospital Districts and Their Role in Your Local Community's Health Care System Program of Work

This caucus will provide additional details on the Recommended Program of Work proposal. Attendees will have the opportunity to ask questions of the League members who proposed this Program item.

---

4-5 p.m.

Caucus: Bylaws

This caucus will provide attendees the opportunity to ask questions of the Bylaws Committee.

---

---

7:30-8:30 p.m.

Caucuses

- Criminal Justice Program of Work

This caucus will provide an opportunity for members to ask questions about and discuss the proposed updates to the LWVWA criminal justice positions.

- A Tree Campaign

Any local League can mount a Tree Campaign to protect and enhance urban tree canopy in their city or county as a response to the climate crisis. This caucus will discuss steps to support local legislation and policies designed to protect tree canopy. Plans include developing public awareness of canopy importance through activities and education and optimizing opportunities for partnerships. Action will be consistent with the Growth Management Act and LWV positions and will be those that will make a difference in local communities and will consider diversity, equity, and inclusion as a focus or an overlay.

Saturday, June 26

---

9:30-10:30 a.m.

Workshop: Being an Ally in Our Diverse State: Multicultural Perspectives

Is there a simple definition of an ally? Probably not, especially in our multicultural, multi-issue society. The League strives to work with people and organizations that share our goals and our principles. The League might call it a coalition, a partnership, or sitting on the same side of the table. This workshop looks at the question of effective allyship from the perspectives of some of the diverse people and groups in Washington state.

11 a.m.-12 p.m.

Caucus: Budget

This caucus will provide attendees the opportunity to ask questions of the Budget Committee.

---

---

4-5 p.m.

Workshop: Vote411 Q&A

A question-and-answer session with members of the state Vote411 Committee.

---

5:30-6:30 p.m.

Workshop: Local Leagues: Voter Services Sharing

This is a chance to chat with other local League Voter Services folks about what each local League is doing. If the group is small, we'll visit as a group. If it's large, we can break out into smaller groups and report back.

---

7:30-8:30 p.m.

Caucuses

- Units as Member Connection Builders

Meeting together in small sub-groups of a local League allows members to get to know one another and form connections. Feeling a sense of belonging is fundamental to us all. When people feel connected, it translates into their work with the League. Learning how "units unite us" is a way for League members to come up with a basic template for initiating and utilizing a unit organizational strategy in many different settings.

- TBD

---

7:30-8:30 p.m.    Caucuses

- Toolkit for the Statewide “Be a Voter” Campaign

This caucus will create a plan for a toolkit for the League’s “Be a Voter” campaign, including materials, social media messaging, videos, and other communications. Everyone is invited! This campaign and the toolkit will be generated by individuals across the state and made available to all Leagues in Washington.

- TBD

---

Monday, June 28

---

9:30-10:30 a.m.    Workshop: Redistricting 2021—It's Far from Over!

Your voting power starts with redistricting. Every 10 years we can influence the process of drawing the lines. It is happening now. Since Census data is delayed, we have even more of an opportunity to give input based on our community needs. Join Redistricting Issue Chair Alison McCaffree to hear about the success of Speak Up Schools and the necessity for everyone to testify to the Washington State Redistricting Commission. And learn what's next with redistricting reform.

11 a.m.-12 p.m.    Workshop: Climate Change Legislation in the Washington 2021 Session, Including Energy and Natural Resources

Why climate change is significant for Washington state. Important bills that passed the 2021 legislative session and what to expect from them and the continuing legislative and regulatory challenges.

12:30-1:30 p.m.    Workshop: Growth Management Act

Growth management is one of the most important governmental functions. This workshop will address the features of the Growth Management Act, the timing of the planning cycles, and how local Leagues can get engaged.

---

2-3 p.m.            Caucus: Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in Washington
Description to come.

3:30-4:30 p.m.    Caucus: Privacy and Cybersecurity

This caucus will include an issues overview (20 minutes), with a Q&A session to follow (40 minutes). Privacy and cybersecurity have rapidly become a critical concern for information and communication technologies (ICTs). The pace of ICT change and complexity outstrips both our knowledge and our current laws. State and federal policymakers and specific platforms are actively evaluating current cyberpolicies and the need for policy changes in response to escalating challenges and threats. Legislation has been introduced across the U.S., yet the LWV has not adopted a privacy or cybersecurity position statement, a prerequisite to the League's meaningful participation in policy dialogues.

---

5-6 p.m.

Informal Adjournment and Happy Hour
